Independent Candidates

You may have your name placed on the general election ballot as an independent candidate if you are not affiliated with a political party. Section 1.005(9) Texas Election Code. If you vote in a party's primary elections or participate in a party's conventions, you thereby affiliate with the party. (Sections 142.008, 162.003, 162.007, Texas Election Code). File a Declaration of Intent to Run as an Independent Candidate \(PDF\), between November 9, 2019 and 6:00 p.m. on December 9, 2019 (Sections 142.002(b)(2), Texas Election Code), with the county judge (county or precinct offices) or the Secretary of State (district and state offices) (Section 142.005, Texas Election Code). After the primary elections (or after the primary runoff election, if the office you are seeking is involved in a primary runoff election), collect signatures \(PDF\) from registered voters, who support your application for a place on the general election ballot \(PDF\). Section 142.009, Texas Election Code. The signers must be registered voters who have not participated in the general primary election or the runoff primary election of a party that has nominated, at either election, a candidate for the office you seek. Section 142.009, Texas Election Code. File the application, along with petition, by 5:00 p.m. on June 25, 2020, with the county judge (county or precinct offices) or the Secretary of State (district and state offices). Sections 142.005, 142.006, Texas Election Code.

Contact the Secretary of State's office concerning the number of signatures required.
