INSTRUCTIONS

FILING PERIOD

- County Chair: The application must be filed no earlier than the 30th day before the second Monday in December of an odd-numbered year unless the filing deadline is extended under Subchapter C. (Section 172.023, Texas Election Code). A political party's state executive committee, by rule, may require that an application for county chair be accompanied by a nominating petition containing the signatures of at least 10% of the incumbent precinct chairs serving on the county executive committee. (Section 172.021(f), Texas Election Code). Please contact your party's state executive committee for details as to whether they have created a rule requiring the submission of a nominating petition.
- Precinct Chair: The application must be filed no earlier than the 90th day before the second Monday in December of an odd-numbered year unless the filing deadline is extended under Subchapter C. (Section 172.023, Texas Election Code)
- For additional information, please see the Candidate's Guide on the Secretary of State's website, including the page on Frequently Asked Questions on Party Affiliation and Candidacy.

FILING DEADLINE

The filing deadline for candidates for precinct and county chair is 6:00 p.m. on the second Monday in December of an odd-numbered year unless the filing deadline is extended under Subchapter C.

The application shall be filed with the county chair or the secretary of the county executive committee or designee, if there is one. (Section 172.022, Texas Election Code) The chair or designee will sign the line next to the "Date Filed" and record the date the application was received when the candidate delivers, faxes or emails the application.

The application must be reviewed after it is filed to ensure that it complies with the requirements as to form, content and procedure. The review shall be completed not later than the fifth business day after the date the application is received by the filing authority. If an application is submitted fewer than five business days before the regular filing deadline, the review shall be completed not later than the first Friday after the regular filing deadline. If an application does not comply with the applicable requirements, the authority shall reject the application and immediately deliver to the candidate written notice of the reason for the rejection. (Section 172.0222, Texas Election Code). Once a determination has been made, the chair will note whether the application was accepted or rejected by completing the date accepted or date rejected box and signing the application in the far bottom right.

FOOTNOTES

¹An application for a place on the ballot, including any accompanying petition, is public information immediately on its filing. (Section 141.035, Texas Election Code)

²Candidates for the offices of county and precinct chair are required to be residents and qualified voters of the county from which they are elected no later than the filing deadline. In addition to the general eligibility requirements for party office, a person must also reside in the election precinct to be eligible to be a candidate for or to serve as a precinct chair for that precinct. There is no specific period of time that the person must have been a resident of the precinct to be eligible for the office of precinct chair. (Section 171.023, Texas Election Code) For additional information, please contact the Elections Division of the Secretary of State.

³All oaths, affidavits, or affirmations made within this State may be administered and a certificate of the fact given by a judge, clerk, or commissioner of any court of record, a notary public, a justice of the peace, and the Secretary of State of Texas. See Chapter 602 of the Texas Government Code for the complete list of persons authorized to administer oaths.
